

NEW 'Show Me How' For Students

A new beta self-service help resource, Show Me How, is now available to students for certain Naviance features. The resource helps students quickly understand how to use Naviance features and reduce the support required from educators.

Show Me How appears for all students in the bottom right corner of Naviance Student experience, providing easy access to on-demand learning.

The beta experience only includes help with college planning features. Help with different features will be added in the future.

- Students can access on-demand Show Me How guided tours of Naviance features.
